

SECTION 24G RETROSPECTIVE ENVIRONMENTAL AUTHORISATION
APPLICATION FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF A WEIR, BERMS, A WALKWAY, AND DIVERSION OF A WATERCOURSE INTO A DAM ON FARM NO. 1314, STELLENBOSCH RD, WESTERN CAPE PROVINCE

Appendix D1: Photo Sheet

Postal: PO Box 12606, Die Boord, Stellenbosch,
7613
Tel: 021 887 9099
Email: info@cornerstoneenviro.co.za
Web: www.cornerstoneenviro.co.za

Photo 1: Flow diversion area and created pond, as viewed from north of the pond (Photo date: 20 March 2019).

Photo 2: Flow diversion area and created pond, as viewed from south of the pond (Photo date: 20 March 2019).

Photo 3: View of the typical watercourse crossings at the site (Image source: BlueScience, 2019).

Photo 4: Infilling/berm area, as viewed from the west (Photo date: 20 March 2019).

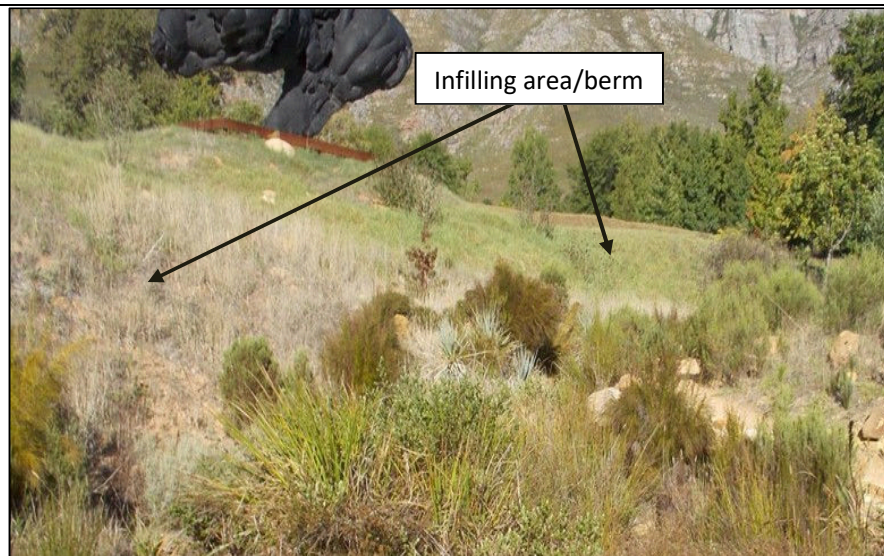

Photo 5: Closer view of infilling/berm area, as viewed from the west (Photo date: 20 March 2019).

Photo 6: View of the constructed weir on the western boundary of the site (Image source: BlueScience, 2019)

Photo 7: View of the constructed weir on the western boundary of the site, as viewed from the north-east (Photo date: 20 March 2019).

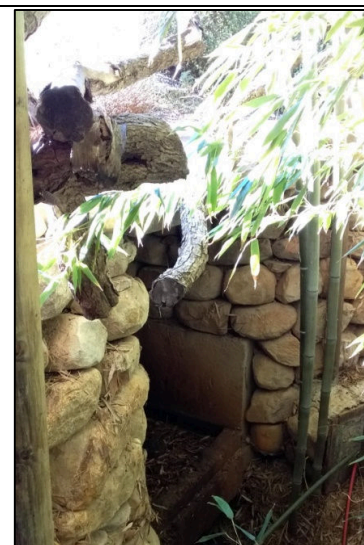

Photo 8: View below the footbridge at the weir structure on the western boundary of the site (Photo date: 20 March 2019).

Photo 9: The rehabilitated Paradyskloof River on the site (Image source: BlueScience, 2019)